Name the Government

Hey...remember waaaaay back in September when we learned about the different types of governments? Good!!
Name the government, based on the country description.

1. Vatican City is headed by the Pope. Vatican City follows the Roman Catholic beliefs and laws. ________________________

2. Australia has a queen who heads the country, but she only has a small role in government. The government is led by a Prime Minster, who is elected by the people. (Two answers) ________________________ & ________________________

3. Qatar has a queen who has absolute authority. ________________________

4. Haiti has a president who is elected for a 5-year term. There is also a Prime Minister and a senate. The senate represents the people. ________________________

5. In Switzerland, citizens elect representatives to sit in two different lawmaking assemblies. But citizens also vote several times a year to decide on laws. Citizens can vote to propose their own laws or undo laws passed by their representatives. All citizens may vote directly on these laws. (Two answers): ________________________ and ________________________.

6. One man leads North Korea and controls its government. He also controls its ruling political party. The ruling party chooses candidates for an Assembly, and citizens vote. The candidates do not have opponents, so citizens have no choices. ________________________
7. The people of Denmark elect representatives to sit in Parliament, a lawmaking body. The Queen of Denmark heads the country, but she only has a small role in government. The government is led by a Prime Minister, who is appointed from among the elected representatives. Two answers: ____________________ & ____________________

8. Brazil is led by a president who is elected by the citizens. Citizens in Brazil elect a new president every four years. Citizens also elect representatives to serve in two different legislative bodies. ____________________

9. Saudi Arabia is led by a king. The king appoints a Council of Ministers to help govern, but there are no elections. Saudi Arabia’s Basic Law states that the country’s constitution is the Islamic holy book the Qur’an and other religious traditions. ____________________ & ____________________
*Two answers

10. From 1948-1994, official policy in South Africa gave white people all the political power. Even though the majority of South Africans were black, non-whites could not influence government. White South Africans elected representatives to sit in a lawmaking body. (Two answers) ____________________ & ____________________